

workshop program
3./4. November 2017„Islamophobia in Eastern Europe: Theoretical Implications and Empirical Findings “

Organiser: Alexander Yendell

Venue: Leipzig, University Theological Faculty, Martin-Luther-Ring 3, 3rd floor, room 304, 04109 Leipzig

Friday, 3rd November

9.30 – 10.00	Greetings and Introduction Alexander Yendell
10.00 – 11.00	Key Note Ivan Kalmar (Toronto): Antisemitism and Islamophobia, Not Only in Eastern Europe
11.00 – 11.15	Coffee and tea break
11.15 – 12.15	Theoretical Implications and Methodological Problems Farid Hafez (Salzburg & Georgetown): Reading Islamophobia Through the Lenses of James Baldwin Piotr Kocyba (Leipzig): Methodological and Ethical Limits of Surveying Islamophobic Movements
12.15 – 14.30	Lunch break at Restaurant Mio
14.30 – 15.30	Comparative perspective Gert Pickel (Leipzig) & Cemal Öztürk (Duisburg): Fear, Nationalism or Ethnocentrism? Islamophobia in Eastern Europe in Comparative Perspective Abdeslam Marfouk (Liege): Who is in Favour of a Ban on Muslims' Immigration?: An analysis of the European Social Survey

15.30 -16.30	Country specifics I Anita Stasulane (Daugavpils): Forms and Manifestations of Islamophobia in Latvia Premysl Rosůlek (Pilsen): Celebritization of Politics in the Post-truth era – the case of Islamophobia and the Czech Pop-Rock Singers on Facebook
--------------	---

19.00	Dinner at Bayerische Bahnhof
-------	------------------------------

Saturday, 4th

9.30 – 10.30 Uhr	Country specifics II Konrad Pędziwiatr (Cracow): Religious dimension of Polish fear of Muslims and Islam Monika Bobako (Poznań): Islamophobia of resentment. Nationalist resurgence, catholic reactionism and the question of Polish semi-peripherality
------------------	--

10.30 – 10.45	Coffe and tea Break
---------------	---------------------

10.45 – 11.45	Country specifics III Aaron Walter (Trnava): Slovakia: The Politics of Hate David Herbert (London): Islamophobia in Russia: review and analysis
---------------	--

11.45 – 12.30	Final Discussion
---------------	------------------

12.30	End of Workshop
-------	-----------------
